

Privacy and Security - System Central Solutions (ABN 65 963 215 991)

We respect your privacy. We have created this privacy and security policy to explain what information we collect about you and how and why we use that information.

Information Collected

In order engage us to provide services or to make an online payment for a System Central service it is necessary for you to provide specific information such as: name, address for shipping, email address, telephone number and credit card information. We restrict this information to the essentials needed for the transaction or to deliver the service.

Your customer account details (excluding credit card details) are maintained on a secure server in our internal systems. We do not disclose any of this information to third parties unless required by law, government request, court order or from our good faith belief that it is necessary to comply with such law, request or court.

We do not store your credit card details in electronic form. Your credit card details are transferred on a secure link and are encrypted and stored in a secure database by our financial institution - Westpac Banking Corporation.

With your authority we may, from time to time, email marketing information to you about System Central products.

Secure Purchasing

Online payments made on our website are transacted via our financial institution's secure payment pages. This payment process provides the following security features:

- Complies with PCIDSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards)
- Provides secure, encrypted transmission of cardholder details
- Processes all payment through 128 bit or higher SSL encryption

Policy Changes

System Central may from time to time update this privacy and security policy in order to include any enhancements that may become available in future. Any changes made will be posted on this site.

By visiting our website you agree to accept any changes made to this policy. The System Central privacy and security policy only refers to the use and disclosure of information we collect from you through our website.

Please contact us at accounts@systemcentral.com.au if you have any questions about our Privacy and Security policy.
